Protect your investments by preventing surge damage and enjoy the peace of mind that surgeassure[™] Whole Home Surge Protection can provide.

Today's homes are more reliant than ever on appliances and electronics that are controlled by extremely sensitive microprocessor circuits. These circuits are easily damaged or disrupted by power surges originating both inside and outside the home.

surgeassure[™] has developed a line of residential protection products designed to protect the electrical and electronic equipment in your home using Total Zone Protection.
